

International Institute of Interdisciplinary Education and Ibero- American studies of Southern Federal University

Some other competitive advantages of the program include the following

- In-depth learning of the Russian language
- Shaping advanced English language skills
- Being involved in various scientific activities, international research projects, educational and cultural projects of the university

Where can I work?

• Upon completion of the program, you will be able to work in various types of organizations and institutions involved in intercultural communication and international cooperation, in tourism and advertising agencies, educational institutions and other companies engaged in international cooperation.

Contacts:

The head of the educational program

Sabina Kerimova

skerimova@sfedu.ru

+7 908 196 31 13

We will be glad to see you among our applicants!